

Community College Merit Scholarship

The Community College Merit Scholarship (CCMS) is a merit-based scholarship for new undergraduate students who recently graduated from a community college with a 3.7 GPA. The scholarship is intended to recognize academic excellence among St. Louis-area community college students who seek to continue their education through University College at Washington University.

The CCMS pays for up to $7,000* toward University College undergraduate course tuition each semester until graduation, with a seven-year limit, as long as the recipient remains in good academic standing and maintains a 3.0 GPA at Washington University. One recipient is chosen each year. The deadline for new students to apply for a fall scholarship is August 15. The deadline for new students to apply for a spring scholarship is January 15. The CCMS cannot be combined with other University College scholarships.

*Combined total scholarship and pell grant awards cannot be greater than tuition.

To be considered for the CCMS, applicants must:

- Apply within one year of graduating from a community college
- Have a minimum 3.7 GPA
- Be admitted to a University College undergraduate degree program
- Be working on first undergraduate degree
- Be a New University College student
- Interview

Note: Washington University employees are not eligible for University College scholarships.

To apply for the CCMS, remit the following items before the deadline:

- University College Scholarship Application
- Essay

Remit required documents before the deadline to:

Scholarship Application
Campus Box 1085
11 N. Jackson Rd., Ste. 1000
St. Louis, MO 63105