How to Register for Classes Online
University College in Arts & Sciences
Click the course registration link on the home page.
Choose a semester you’d like to browse.
Select a department from the dropdown menu and click Search to see available courses.

Note: To browse all courses, click Search without selecting a department.
The Other Filters menu can help you find courses with special features, such as online, hybrid, or Non western.

The Days menu lets you search for courses offered on a particular day of the week.
To view a complete course description, click the title of the course, and a new window with additional course information will open.
