Scholarship Policies

1. Scholarship recipients must remain in good standing (placement on probation of any kind warrants the removal of the scholarship).
2. Scholarship awards can be applied only to courses that are applicable towards the student's academic program.
3. Scholarship awards cover tuition only. Lab fees, late fees, books, and other expenses are not covered by this scholarship.
4. Scholarship recipients must attain a passing grade in all course work to remain fully eligible for scholarships in the subsequent semester.
 - a. Failing a course will jeopardize the student's eligibility for a scholarship in the subsequent semester. Student regains full eligibility only after successfully passing all courses in a given semester.
 - b. Withdrawing from a course may also impact a student's eligibility for a scholarship in the subsequent semester. Student regains full eligibility only after successfully passing all courses in a given semester.
5. Washington University Employees are not eligible for University College scholarships.
6. Along with the completed application, applicants must also submit an essay addressing why diversity in the health care workforce matters.
